

Who We Are

The Peoria Area World Affairs Council promotes a better understanding of world affairs among members, students, and the community through public programs that bring national and international experts to Central Illinois. PAWAC, a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization, is affiliated with the World Affairs Councils of America and the Foreign Policy Association. Our membership reflects diverse political views and is open to all individuals.

What We Do

Speaker Series - PAWAC hosts a variety of programs with optional dinners, lectures, or events, usually once a month, 9 - 11 times per year. Academics, authors, experts on international topics, and other professionals address a wide range of international topics in an engaging format with open dialog.

Educational Outreach - PAWAC provides a variety of programming to area high schools, colleges, and universities including an International Scholastic Bowl for area high schools, teacher training and workshops, annual "Trivia Challenge" fundraising event, and reduced cost programs for all area students.

Why Join or Renew?

Membership has its privileges: Receptions with notable speakers, publication discounts (National Geographic, Foreign Affairs, The Economist, New York Times, and many others—(call for complete list), Annual Member Appreciation Event, discounts on programs and conferences, and much more!
