

Founders Circle

To honor and recognize those who founded the Peoria Area World Affairs Council fifty years ago with their forward thinking, and to honor the individuals whose donations of time, talent and treasure have grown and sustained the organization.

Original Founders

Individual persons identified in archival documents of the first conferences, organization by-laws, and the original letter of incorporation submitted to the State of Illinois, whose efforts have proven foundational.

Sustaining Founders

Individual persons who share the passion and vision of the Original Founders who wish to sustain the organization through his or her financial support of $5,000, separate from annual dues. Recognition is celebrated once the final contribution has been received.

Honorary Founders

Individuals who have supported, and continue to support, the organization in a wide variety of ways. Honorary Founders are nominated by their peers through a letter of recommendation and a tax-deductible donation of $1,000. The Board of Directors will select three Honorary Founders each year from the nominations.
